Hi [REDACTED]

Attached is the near-final version of my paper (I will review it again prior to submitting to my professor, but plan only to make minor technical/formatting edits). For your convenience, I have attached two versions: the final draft, and a track-changes version, which includes all the changes from the version you previously reviewed. Most of the alterations were minor--formatting and new sources/bibliography.

The paper is due in two weeks, so please let me know by Friday, May 13th if you have any questions or edits. After your review, I also plan to submit it to a law journal for their consideration.

Thanks again for all your help and flexibility throughout this process!

very interesting. Keep in mind we have a 30 working day review policy. We usually always get our reviews done within this time frame, but sometimes complex cases do go over. Your paper is not that long, so I doubt this will be an issue. If you could do me one favor, we are required to mail a copy of our final correspondence. Hello [REDACTED]

b6 -2

Thanks for the compliment. The version you have is still pretty raw but the content is locked down which is why I decided to send it on up to you guys. Regarding psuedonyms for the Bureau people, I did a little of both. Early on I started using psuedoyms but it got hard to keep track of the aliases and keep the context accurate during re-writes. To deal with this I decided to temporarily go with the real names until I got to the pre-publication review stage. That way it was clear who was who w/o me having to constantly use my cheat sheet.

Other than the above exceptions, in the manuscript version you currently have, all the Bureau people have real names used. I have a cheat-sheet with a list of psuedonyms so switching them out will be a snap.

Thanks for the update,

Just wanted to touch base on your manuscript. I'm reading it now and it's very well written. I have one question so far... when you mention folks in the Bureau, did you use their real names or did you use pseudonyms?

I should have a list of the names in question as I finish my review, hopefully later this week.

Thanks for your help.

The National Virtual Translation Center (NVTC) has yet more material for pre-publication review. Thank you for responding to our needs.

The NVTC is hosting a Translation Memory Technology workshop for the USG community users of this technology as well as Washington, DC users from the Pan American Health Organization and the Internatl Monetary Fund who will be sending non US citizens to participate. There is also an FBI/NVTC-funded Canadian researchers who is participating.

The date is Friday, 20 May. The venue is a University of Maryland building that houses the IC's Intelligence Advanced Research Projects Agency (IARPA, IC counterpart to DoD DARPA). The meeting is in the IARPA auditorium.

NVTC is making several of the presentations. Attached is a set of ppt slides that will be presented by myself, [REDACTED], and [REDACTED]

b6 -1

I am also the presenter of the second, much smaller set of ppt slides.

I seek pre-publication review of both attached sets of slides. Thank you in advance.

Translation Memory Technology Workshop

Dear Dr. Van Ess-Dykema,

This letter is in response to your May 13, 2011, request for approval to participate in a speaking engagement at the NVTC translation memory technology workshop pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24).

Your request to speak and your powerpoint slides are approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;
- G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;
- H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
- I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
- J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
- K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
- L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
- M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C., Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)(1))

In addition, you may include your current title or position as a biographical detail if it is given no more prominence than other significant biographical details.

Hope you are doing well. All of the names are fictitious names. If there is an agent with the same name is purely by coincidence.

I just have one question on your paper.

[redacted] are the names that you used for the SA's real or fake? If they are real, are they publicly known? b6 -2

Thanks

Hi [REDACTED]

Just wanted to touch base and see if you had any questions regarding the paper that I wrote and sent to you a few weeks back. Please let me know if you need any clarifications or need to review the referenced sources. I have printed out a copy and gave it to my supervisor. I am waiting for him to make any necessary changes as well. Thank you.

Hi [REDACTED]

b6 -2

The process for reviewing goes like this... You send us the paper, we look at it, and either send you an approval or amendment letter.

If your paper is unclassified, you can send it to [REDACTED]

b7E -4

From the sound of things, the fact that all of your information comes from the internet, it doesn't appear that there will be many issues, if any at all.

We have a 30 working day review policy. We like to get our review done within 30 working days. This generally is the case, but sometimes complex cases do go over.

If I could also ask when you formally submit your request to include a mailing address, as we are required to mail our final correspondence.

Hope this helps. Feel free to contact me with any further questions.

Good morning. My name is [redacted] and I am [redacted]. I am currently in the process of finishing up my Masters degree at [redacted]. One of the last assignments I had was for a final paper. I decided to write a paper on [redacted]. All of the information that I used for my paper was derived from information on the Internet. Nonetheless, I was told to send a copy of the report to you for final review.

Could you please let me know the process for you to review the document? That way, I can send you a copy immediately.

Thank you for your assistance.

Re: "The Dynamics of State Failure in Africa and the Threats to Global Security"

Dear Mr. Nwadiashi,

This letter is in response to your request of April 26, 2011, for review of the above referenced thesis for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

Your submission was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your thesis, as presented.

You may include your FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information. In addition, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the thesis are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at [redacted]. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.
